Seat 4: The community cleanup day is on 3.28.2026.

121 Front Street has been sold. The new owner wants to tear it down and put a mobile home on the property.

4-wheelers and dirt bikes have been racing on the walking track.

Seat 5: Some of the potholes on Lakeshore have been filled.

Mayor: Be thinking about a budget for a generator for the storm shelter.

The new fire station framing is done.

The visitors raised concerns about their increased gas bills and about paying fire hydrant fees.

The Mayor explained that the current bill covered the time period when we experienced frigid temperatures for an extended amount of time. And that the fire hydrant fees cover the cost to maintain the fire hydrants.

Gage Kelley makes a motion to approve up to $20,000.00 for a generator for the storm shelter. Seconded by Jeremy Davis. Roll call vote:
